TEXAS PROPERTY TAX LAWS REQUIRE YOU TO RENDER ALL TANGIBLE PROPERTY USED OR HELD FOR THE PRODUCTION OF INCOME AS OF JANUARY 1, 2004. Rendering your property entitles you to receive a Notice of Appraised Value, which contains information about your value and estimated property taxes. To render means to list all property used or held for the production of income. When required by the chief appraiser, a person shall file a report listing the name and address of each owner of property that is in his possession or management on January 1 by bailment, lease, consignment or other arrangement. [Tex. Property Tax Code, Sec. 22.04(B)]

IMPORTANT: This rendition covers property you owned on January 1 of this year. You must file this rendition with your county appraisal district after January 1 and not later than April 15 of this year. If you fail to timely file a rendition, you will be liable for a penalty equal to 10 percent of the total amount of taxes imposed on the property by taxing units within the appraisal district's jurisdiction. If a court determines that you filed a false rendition or report with the intent to commit fraud or to evade the tax or you alter, destroy, or conceal any record, document, or thing or present to the chief appraiser any altered or fraudulent record, document, or thing, or otherwise engage in fraudulent conduct for the purpose of affecting the outcome of an inspection, investigation, determination or other proceeding before the appraisal district, the chief appraiser must impose a penalty equal to 50 percent of the total taxes due on the property for the current year. Upon written request, the chief appraiser must extend the deadline to May 15. You may receive an additional 15-day extension if you request it in writing and show good cause for the extension.

In completing your rendition, state law provides you may either provide a good faith estimate of the market value of the property rendered or the historical cost of the property when new and the year of acquisition. It is at your discretion to provide either one or both types of information. If your good faith estimate of the total value of your property is less than $20,000 you only need to render a general description of the property and its physical location or taxable situs. If the chief appraiser notifies you in writing that you must do so, you must file the statement within 21 days of the date you receive the request.
